If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire 6 MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.

Office Action Summary	Application No. 10/774,272	Applicant(s) ROTH ET AL.
	Examiner James L. Swiger	Art Unit 3733

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 10/11/2006 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-17 and 19-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Fujiwara (U.S. Patent No. 6,406,477). For claims 1-9,13-18, Fujiwara discloses a device having a mechanism (See Fig. 2 below).

Fig. 2

Fujiwara also discloses a device having a body member (46a), a first implant (16), a second implant (32), a single prong (46), drive member (40), a first and second engagement surface (Fig. 2), a longitudinal channel (16b), stops (34), a bore (26), a predetermined angle with the first longitudinal axis (see Fig. 3 below), a drive member (42) that is rotatable and threadably engages the first implant, and has an end cap (top section of 42).

Figure. 3

The device of Fujiwara anticipates the device further. For claims 23-29, 33-34, the reference '477 teaches a body member, a first and second prong (Fig. 4), and a drive member (40). The first and second prongs are substantially parallel, the second prong is substantially zero in length, and both substantially prevent the rotation and/or sliding of the second implant. The word "substantially" functions as an indefinite term in this situation, and is examined in the broadest reasonable interpretation. The mechanism also extends through a bore in the first implant at the intersection of the axes in Fig. 3, and an end cap (top of 42).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 34 is allowed.

Claim 18 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
